

BWI 551 English for IT

Course content: Technical language of business informatics

Learning outcomes: The students have mastered a specific specialist vocabulary from the field of business informatics in science and practice, also based on the content of the specialist lectures;

You are able to quickly grasp and understand authentic and specific language material from the IT area; You will be able to orientate yourself in professional communication situations in the business and academic environment and to participate appropriately;

The students are prepared for the requirements of a specialist activity in an English-speaking work and scientific environment by teaching a comprehensive vocabulary.

Assessment: Presentation or written exam

Lecturer: Prof. Dr. Dorrhauer

ECTS: 2